Community School of Music and Arts Presents ArtWorlds: Mexico, Día de los Muertos, November 1

MOUNTAIN VIEW, CA – The Community School of Music and Arts (CSMA) in Mountain View presents ArtWorlds: Mexico, Día de los Muertos on Wednesday, November 1 from 4-7pm. This free event will be held in CSMA's Tateuchi Hall and Mohr Gallery, located at 230 San Antonio Circle in Mountain View.

CSMA's ArtWorlds series celebrates art from around the globe. ArtWorlds: Mexico is a Día de los Muertos celebration for the entire community. The event will feature a variety of Día de los Muertos altars, created by local artists including Patty Botello, Raquel Coelho, Elvia Gonzalez, Angélica Ortiz Anguiano, Lisa Ramirez, Roberto Romo and Cristina Velázquez. Guests can take part in hands-on Día de los Muertos art activities for all ages. The event will also include live music from Mariachi Tierra Linda, as well as traditional Mexican cuisine.

CSMA's ArtWorlds series highlights and celebrates the cultures that make up the diverse Bay Area. Held regularly throughout the year, each ArtWorlds event features a different country, culture or geographic region, and engages the senses with music, visual arts, food, wine, education and conversation.

The Community School of Music and Arts is an arts education nonprofit committed to engaging the community with Arts4All. Located in Mountain View, CSMA provides unique music and visual arts programming and events for audiences of all ages and backgrounds.
