

csma's got Talent

Sunday, April 2, 2017, 4:30pm
Computer History Museum
Mountain View

community school of music and arts

Enjoy an Evening of Amazing Performances and Dazzling Art!

Celebrate CSMA with specialty cocktails and an elegant dinner paired with fine wine.

Support our Programs for Young Musicians and Artists

Proceeds from the Gala provide school subsidies, financial aid and merit scholarships to students who would otherwise not have access to the arts. The event draws over 250 guests from Silicon Valley, a wonderful mix of arts supporters, community leaders and local philanthropists. Last year's event sold out!

Event Honoree

CSMA is pleased to recognize John E. McGuirk for his leadership in arts advocacy. John is the Program Director of Performing Arts at the William and Flora Hewlett Foundation, where he works with nearly 250 performing arts grant recipients. John is an articulate and visionary advocate for the arts. His prior experience includes six years as a CSMA staff member.

Sponsorships

Be a part of this very special event by purchasing tickets, buying a table or providing a sponsorship. Last year's corporate sponsors included Applied Materials, ASAP, Asset Management Company, Boston Private Bank & Trust Company, Coldwell Banker, Google, Prometheus, Sares Regis Group of Northern California, Union Bank of California, the Village at San Antonio Center, and the Wilson Sonsini Goodrich Rosati Foundation. CSMA is a 501(c)3 non-profit organization. Our federal tax ID number is 23-7023900.
